DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1-5 and 7-12 is acknowledged. Applicants traversed on the grounds that claims 6, 13 and 14 are similar enough to Claims 1-5, and 7-12 that a separate search for the claims would result in redundant prosecution and on the grounds that the additional claims would not be a serious burden to the examiner. This was not found to be persuasive.

A restriction requirement between one set of product claims and a set of process claims was issued in the Office action of Paper No.7, mailed on 3/18/2002. "Section 121 [of Title 35 USC] permits a restriction for 'independent and distinct inventions,' which the PTO construes to mean that the sets of claims must be drawn to separately patentable inventions." See Applied Materials Inc. v. Advanced Semiconductor Materials 40 USPQ2d 1481, 1492 (Fed. Cir 1996)(Archer, C.J., concurring in-part and dissenting in-part). A product and the process of making the product are "two independent, albeit related inventions." See In re Taylor, 149 USPQ 615, 617 (CCPA 1966). "When two sets of claims filed in the same application are patentably distinct or represent independent inventions, the examiner is to issue a restriction requirement." See In re Berg, 46 USPQ2d 1226, 1233 n.10 (Fed. Cir. 1998).

The examiner, in issuing a restriction requirement, must demonstrate "one way distinctiveness." Applied Materials Inc. at 1492. As stated within the restriction requirement, "inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)).” In this application, the examiner restricted the product claims from the process claims on the grounds that “the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as a process wherein the electrode can be made by another and materially different process, such as the electrode being formed by a sputtering process rather than by MOCVD,” and that, as a result, a restriction was necessary.

In addition to one way distinctiveness, the examiner must show “why it would be a burden to examine both sets of claims.” Applied Materials Inc. at 1492. “A serious burden on the examiner may be prima facie shown if the examiner shows by appropriate explanation either separate classification, separate status in the art, or a different field of search.” MPEP 803. An explanation was provided in the restriction requirement. Specifically, in addition to being distinct, the examiner indicated that restriction is proper because the product claims and the process claims “have acquired a separate status in the art.”

The criteria of distinctness and burdensomeness have been met, as demonstrated hereinabove. Accordingly, the restriction requirement in this application is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 6, 13, and 14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in Paper No. 9.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: A first embodiment represented by Figures 1, 4 and 5, a second embodiment represented by Figures 2 and 6, a third embodiment represented by Figure 7, a fourth embodiment represented by Figure 8.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
